

Blazers Hockey

Blazers host the Queens!

The BH Blazers pick up win #31 & 32 in their 47th and 48th games of the season...

PREP TEAM UPDATE:

As the Blazers enjoy a weekend at home, the Thunder Bay Queens Midget AA team braved the highways for a two game set.

Game #1

Saturday night hockey at the WWC saw the Blazers 47th game of the year in front of an eager hometown crowd. The game started off with a rush as BH jumped out to a 3 goal lead by the 11:16 mark of the first period. Going into the dressing up by three the Blazers set out to continue their play. The second period saw the Queens respond with a goal just over 6 minutes in, followed up by the Blazers answering to restore their 3 goal lead. However...the Queens would push back with a trio of goals coming all within one, going into the final ice cut. Period #3 remained scoreless until about one minute to go when the Blazers added their 6th and 7th goals. The 7 - 4 victory brought BH's win total to 31 for the year.

Game #2

With a quick rest the two teams went at it again Sunday morning in game two. Once again the Blazers came out of the blocks with 3 goals in the first period to go into the first intermission up by three. Just as in the Saturday game the Queens answered with a goal of their own halfway through the second. Wanting to avoid a repeat of the previous nights second period, the Blazers pushed back, answering with two more goals before the period was out. They then set their sights on the third period with a 5 - 1 score. Not to be outdone, the Queens resiliently found a tally just over 5 minutes into the third frame. Just as resiliently the Blazers answered once again with their sixth of the game to stride a 6 - 2 win and their 32nd win of the season. Way to go Ladies!

What's next...

The Blazers now set into a week of practices before heading off to the prestigious Challenge Cup in Arlington, Virginia (looking for any Ovechkin or Obama sightings!) The Blazers will start off the tournament against the Chicago Mission before facing Detroit Little Caesars, NAHA, and New Jersey Rockets.

BH is setting their sights high!

Go BH!
